

Travel Resource List

Use these key resources whether you travel within the US or abroad:

- Go to: www.DHS.gov, the US Department of Homeland Security website, for information and tips on staying safe.
- Go to: www.tsa.gov, the Transportation Security Administration (TSA) website. To learn more about prohibited items in carry-on and checked luggage, use the "Can I Bring My..." utility. Smartphone users go to: www.tsa.gov/mobile to download the "My TSA" application about TSA travel policies and procedures.
- Go to: <http://blog.tsa.gov/2013/11/tsa-2013-holiday-travel-tips.html>, for ideas to help you navigate security checkpoints during holiday travel.
- Go to www.aap.org for tips from the American Academy of Pediatric (AAP) website about traveling with children.
- Dial: 1-888-407-4747, to contact the local US Embassy or Consulate if calling from the US or Canada.
- Important Note: If an emergency or death occurs during your trip, go to: http://www.travel.state.gov/travel/tips/emergencies/emergencies_1212.html for comprehensive information on how to manage travel emergencies.

Use these key resources when you travel within the US:

- Go to: www.DHS.gov, for information on staying safe while traveling in the US. The DHS issues alerts for terrorism threats through its National Terrorism Advisory System (NTAS).
- Call: 1-866-289-9673 to contact the TSA Contact Center (TCC) or email: TSA-ContactCenter@dhs.gov, for information on safe travel.
- Go to: www.DHS.gov, for information on staying safe while traveling in the US. The DHS issues alerts for terrorism threats through its National Terrorism Advisory System (NTAS).

Use these key resources when you travel outside the US:

- Go to: www.travel.state.gov/travel/tips/registration/registration_4789.html to sign up for the, "Smart Traveler Enrollment Program" (STEP), so the US State Department can assist you in an emergency.
- Go to: www.travel.state.gov for more information and tips for traveling abroad.